

Please don't change Indiana's telemarketer laws. We have been able to eat supper in piece and know that when the phone rings it is someone we know. Indiana's law is working the way it was meant to work.